NEWS RELEASE

USBA Names New Chief Financial Officer

(Overland Park, KS) USBA (Uniformed Services Benefit Association) today announced that Colonel Robin A. Snyder, USAF (Ret.) is joining the company as Chief Financial Officer beginning September 1, 2005.

Snyder brings with him a unique set of experiences, having served over 27 years in the United States Air Force as a senior level officer with wide-ranging management responsibilities. Most recently, Snyder was deputy director for Capability Development at United States Strategic Command (USSTRATCOM) at Offutt AFB in Nebraska.

Snyder's background includes planning/programming/budgeting and execution phases of the DoD acquisition process as well as capabilities development to provide critical warfighter support. Throughout Snyder's military career, he has held top leadership positions dealing directly with both operational and financial objectives.

"Robin brings great talent and skills both in finance and business leadership to our organization," says USBA's President/CEO Colonel Jerry V. Patton, USAF (Ret.). "His successful military experience gives him the ability to contribute significantly to our financial, operational and business strategy."

USBA is a nonprofit organization providing a variety of low-cost group life insurance plans and other financial services to the Active Duty and Retired Military market as well as Honorably Discharged Veterans, National Guard, Reserves and Federal civilian employees. With over 200,000 insured lives, USBA is one of the largest military associations offering life insurance plans.
